Message from Miss Gibbs

This is the first newsletter of 2019! I hope everyone had a good Christmas holiday. Our children looked fantastic dressed up on their Launch days and they all appeared to have a great day. Mrs Campbell will be writing this column for a while, from next week, as I begin maternity leave. I am already looking forward to popping back into school with the baby, to see the children. I am sure you will all give your support to Mrs Campbell, as you have me.
